

Miquel Molins Nubiola

Miquel Molins is Doctor of History and Theory of Contemporary Art at the Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona. He was lecturer at the Eina and Massana schools in Barcelona and thesis supervisor of the Metropolis Master at the Universidad Politécnicas de Cataluña. For the academic year 1994-1995 he was Visiting Professor of the Art History, Theory and Criticism Department of the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. He has run the Barcelona Museum of Contemporary Art and was curator of the Miró Foundation in Barcelona. He was also curator of several different exhibitions in the Spanish State and abroad. He is the author of various essays on critique and modern and contemporary art published in journals and specialist press. He is currently lecturer of Theory and Contemporary Art at the Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona and Chairman-Director of Fundación Banco Sabadell.