Terms and conditions of the call

- 1 The award shall be granted to a researcher with a noteworthy curriculum in the field of biomedical research and health science.
- 2 The candidates must comply with the following cumulative requirements: researchers must be aged under 42 (as at 31 December 2022), of any nationality, must have fulfilled a minimum of three continuous years of research work in Spain, and have centered their work in the field of biomedicine and health sciences. This age requirement can be increased by up to one year per child when there have been career breaks due to leave for childbirth and childcare.
- 3 Candidates must be recommended by persons affiliated with universities, hospitals or research centres.
- 4 The proposals must be prepared in Spanish or in English, between 31 January 2023 31 March 2023 (both inclusive) online via the website www.fundacionbancosabadell.com (Grants & Awards, Prizes).
- 5 Each proposal must include:
 - A cover letter of the person who is recommending the candidate, in PDF format.
 - The candidate's curriculum, in PDF format, in a maximum of 5 pages.
 - A single document in PDF format which includes (i) a list of all of the most relevant research reports carried out (maximum 10) and (ii) a copy of the documents listed above.
- 6 The panel of judges shall be chaired by Dr. Oscar Marín, Director of the Centre for Developmental Neurobiology of MRC at King's College London, and the judges shall be selected from amongst different researchers, all of whom are specialists in biomedicine. The judges' verdict is final, and it shall be made public in June 2023. The award winner shall attend the award ceremony and announcement to the press (lunch with the press and members of the panel of judges). The prize money (50,000 euros) will be deposited on the date the Award Ceremony takes place by bank transfer to the account the researcher holds at Banco Sabadell.
- 7 In the event that the candidate receives an award, he/she hereby assigns to the Banco Sabadell Foundation the right to use his/her own image and voice, free of charge, to the maximum extent permitted by law, so that the Foundation may broadcast, among other things, the award ceremony and report its result. This assignment will be formalised prior to the award ceremony.
- 8 The submission of applications entails the full acceptance of all the general terms and conditions set forth herein.
